Delaware & Hudson Service

Shortest, Quickest and Best Line from New York to Montreal

Is the gateway to one of America's rarest playgrounds where these events take place. This surpassing region embraces the Adirondacks, Lake George, Lake Champlain, Lake Placid and Saranac Lake, Saratoga Springs, Sharon Springs, Cooperstown and Aurable Chasm. Accommodations here are plentiful to suit every purse, and there are miles upon miles of good camping grounds.

A Fisherman's Paradise

Right Now is the Time to Go There

From Riverside, on the Adirondack Branch of the Delaware & Hudson Lines, are reached by easy automobile stages these crystal lakes: Schroon, Echo, Brant, Friends', French and Loon. Here the ever-wary brook trout may be tempted to rise for the fly; big lake trout, bass and pickerel—all are plentiful. One may pitch his camp on the edge of any of these beautiful lakes, put up at some forest inn or comfortable boarding house and enjoy the most restful, care-free life of heart's desire.

"D & H" luxuriously appointed through trains leave Grand Central Terminal, New York. Connections with Hudson River Boat Lines at Albany and Troy.

"A Summer Paradise"—360 page book, illustrated—tells where to go, how to go and what it will cost—a book bubbling over with vacation joy and sunshine. Interesting, and above all, helpful. Mailed for 6 cents in stamps.
